

Opportunities to SERVE

Bosnian immigrants ministry

St. Louis, Mo.

In partnership with Kirkwood Baptist Church, CBF field personnel Mira and Sasha Zivanov work to provide food pantries, computer classes and English language courses to St. Louis-area immigrants from Bosnia, Slovenia and Croatia. Contact Chris Boltin, CBF Short Term Assignments/Partnerships Manager, at cboltin@thefellowship.info if you or your church is interested in serving with Kirkwood Baptist and the Zivanovs.

Refugee outreach

Marseille, France

CBF field personnel David and Julie Brown minister in the beautiful coastal town of Marseille, France. The beauty of this location is overshadowed by the plight of thousands of refugees who come to Europe in search of a better life. These refugees have faced immense poverty, civil wars and ethnic strife. Through tangible ministries like ESL classes, counseling, leadership development, music, construction and Vacation Bible School, teams are able to join the Browns in this work. Contact the Browns at gbrown52779@yahoo.com.

Business as mission

San Antonio, Texas

CBF field personnel Ben and Leonora Newell work among budding entrepreneurs in San Antonio, Texas. The Newells assist these promising entrepreneurs in the basics of business, including providing crash courses in bookkeeping, business plan preparation, quality control, production control and mentoring through webinars, conference calls, meetings and personal visits. Reach the Newells at bnewell22@gmail.com.

Urban ministry

North Charleston, S.C.

Metanoia is an urban ministry that is centered on addressing the issue of poverty in the Chicora/Cherokee community of North Charleston, S.C. By building up leaders, establishing quality housing and focusing on economic development opportunities, those who participate in this urban ministry are led to a true "metanoia," a transformation of the heart and mind. Both individuals and churches may serve through landscaping, painting, construction/renovation and mentoring opportunities. Contact Chris Boltin at cboltin@thefellowship.info for additional information.

Karen refugee ministry

Louisville, Ky.

The ministry of CBF field personnel Steve Clark and Annette Ellard is featured on pages 14-17 of this issue of fellowship! magazine. If you or your church are interested in serving alongside Clark and Ellard, connect with them at steve.annette@yahoo.com.

Romany outreach

Moldova

CBF field personnel Keith Holmes and Mary Van Rheenen, though based in the Netherlands, focus on the needs of the Romany people. This couple has spent countless hours dubbing Christian films, children's videos and audio versions of Scripture into the Romany language. In addition to these beneficial and unique ministries, Holmes and Van Rheenen are also involved in Romany outreach in Moldova.

Once known as the "bread basket of Europe," Moldova today is regarded as the poorest country in the region. Teams are needed to assist local believers in holding a Vacation Bible School/Day Camp in a Romany village. To learn more, contact Holmes and Van Rheenan at holmesvr@online.nl.

Open House Ministries

Homestead, Fla.

Open House Ministries was birthed in the aftermath of Hurricane Andrew in 1992, which almost completely destroyed Homestead, Fla. Nearly 20 years later, the Homestead community continues to face immense challenges, with 43 percent of children living in poverty and a high school graduation rate that hovers around 50 percent. Open House offers great mission opportunities for groups to work with these children and youth. For more information, visit www.openhouseministries.info.
